Yesterday a group of Americans from all over the country simply walked up to the Capitol and occupied it, without using violence. If an unorganized group of people can do that in the most powerful nation in the world, imagine what happens if we are ORGANIZED and ARMED.

I was there and I'm tired of people saying it was ANTIFA who broke in first. It was MAGA folks who were sick and tired of the bullshit. We got all the way to Pelosi's office. Without weapons. They are scared shitless now that they know we can get to them - own the victory. This is just the beginning folks.

1 ▼ The only way Patriots got into the Rotunda is because someone let them in. Those doors were secure until someone from inside opened them.

1 ▼ I didn't get that far so I can't comment on how it was breached. But the initial storming was done absolutely 100% by MAGA folks many of whom took OC spray directly to the face

1 ▼ Good luck with that. The powers that be will ensure this never happens again. They said as much right after the 2016 election. Now that every branch of power is in their hands you can guarantee there will be some heavy changes.

1 ▼ Need not be the same target. Clearly, they were unprepared for yesterday. Keep them guessing where we'll be next.

▼ Trump apparently didn't want you their either. "Go home, be peaceful" that doesn't sound like a call to war.
